Of course there are a number of different species of the rat tler (about thirty), but they inhabit different parts of the country and are all to be known from the fact that they "rattle" when approached. All the rest of our snakes are absolutely harmless, and their bite is to be less feared than that of a mosquito.-Scrap

A Remarkable Church. A small watering place in Austria named Eichwald can boast of possessing a most remarkable church. It was first built by an Italian architect at Venice at the expense of Prince Carlos Clary-Aldringen, a great admirer of Italian architecture. When it was finished, the church was taken to pieces again and packed in thousands of num bered cases for transportation to Eichwald. At this place in Austria it was eventually rebuilt and then made over to the inhabitants as a free gift from the prince.

A little girl remarked to her mother, I am not afraid in the dark." "Of course not," said the mother.

"I was afraid once, though, when I went into the pantry to get a tart," she added. "What were you afraid of?"

"I was afraid I would not find the tarts," was the reply.

No Need to Cry.

"Don't cry, Buster," said Jack after the catastrophe. "Napoleon didn't cry every time his brother hit him accidentally on the eye."

"I know that," retorted Buster. "Napoleon did all the hittin' on the eye hisself.
